

*An offering to His lotus feet
Frangipani*

Frangipani, also known as the temple flower, is an integral part of the Guru Pooja at the Ashram. The white blossoms are offered as Pushpanajali, the ritual offering of flowers in this sacred process.

Frangipani

30 Incense Sticks

*Garland of Grace
Magizham*

*The inimitable floral malas at the ashram are intricately woven with the rare Magizham/Maulsari blossoms,
renowned for their deep,
sweet fragrance.*

Magizham
30 Incense Sticks

The sweet and enchanting fragrance of the Manoranjitham wafts beneath the sublime silence of the Dhyanalinga, where the blossoms are offered as part of the floral arrangements that adorn the form.

Fragrance Divine
Manoranjitham

A truly divine fragrance that befits the divine form.

Manoranjitham

30 Incense Sticks

The rare and exotic Nagalingam flowers are incredible in their natural design, mimicking a linga encased in a hooded embrace. These flowers are an unmissable presence in Sadhguru's vicinity, showcasing his immense appreciation for this natural wonder.

Flowers of Blessing Nagalingam

Nagalingam

30 Incense Sticks

A constant presence at Darshans, the Sampige (champaka) blossoms are known for their heady fragrance. The fragrance has a certain quality that could almost intoxicate one.

Flower of Intoxication
Shenbagam

Shenbagam
30 Incense Sticks

