

isha
LIFE

An offering to His lotus feet

Frangipani

*Frangipani, also known as the temple flower, is an integral part of the Guru Pooja at the Ashram.
The white blossoms are offered as Pushpanajali, the ritual of offering flowers in this sacred process.*

Frangipani

30 Incense Sticks

isha
LIFE

His inimitable floral malas are intricately woven with the rare Magizhlam/Maulsari blossoms, renowned for their deep, sweet fragrance.

Garland of Grace

Magizham

Magizham

30 Incense Sticks

isha
LIFE

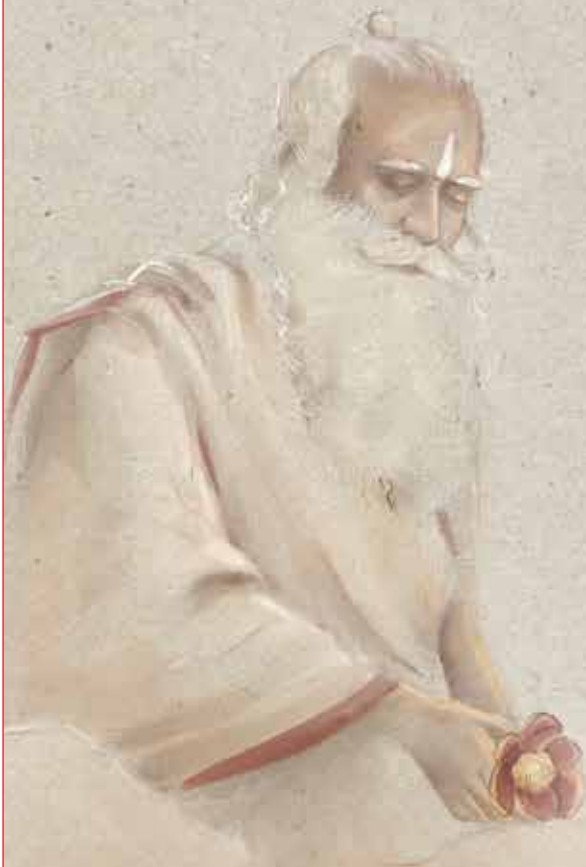

Sadhguru is often seen taking in the heady fragrance of the Manoranjitham flower.

"Fragrance has this quality. If you simply take it in a fragrance – in such a way that the source of the fragrance is not the flower but you – it opens up a different dimension."

Fragrance Divine Manoranjitham

Manoranjitham 30 Incense Sticks

The rare and exotic Nagalingam flowers are incredible in their natural design, mimicking a linga encased in a hooded embrace. These flowers are an unmissable presence in Sadhguru's vicinity, showcasing his immense appreciation for this natural wonder.

Nagalingam

30 Incense Sticks

Flowers of Blessing Nagalingam

isha
LIFE

In Sadhguru's own words - "I have had a strange relationship with the Sampige flower right through my life... It is very fragrant to a point where it will intoxicate you."

Shenbagam

30 Incense Sticks

Flower of Intoxication

Shenbagam

A painting of a woman's foot, likely a deity or a noblewoman, wearing a gold anklet with a tassel. The foot is positioned next to a glass slipper. The background is a textured, light-colored surface. In the foreground, there are several yellow flowers with white centers and a gold scroll with white leaves.

Pushpanjalim

*Pushpanjalim is a floral tribute to the Master.
A collection of five floral fragrances that are intimately connected with Sadhguru.*

