The Devi-Inspired Shawls

A one-of-a-kind creation, crafted from Ahimsa Matka silk and naturally dyed. Inspired by Devi and her sacred Abhishekam, this collection captures the essence of chandan, haldi, kumkum, and sacred offerings through four hues—black, peach, yellow, and red.

Each motif draws from the energy of Devi temples, making every piece a wearable invocation of grace and devotion. The fabric is handwoven without harming silkworms, and delicately embroidered by women artisans in Gujarat using the traditional Sada Bharat technique.

The yarns are spun using a metal spindle called Takli, a time-honored method passed down from the original weavers of West Bengal.
